Re: Accessible Trail on South Talbot Road in Essex Ontario

At its Regular Council Meeting held on September 6, 2022, Council discussed the importance of an accessible transportation trail along South Talbot Road when the permanent trail is constructed. Accordingly, Essex Town Council requested that the Ministry of Transportation of Ontario (MTO) plan for an accessible trail for connectivity, accessibility and safety to help promote healthy and active lifestyles in the community.

As a result of that discussion Council passed the following resolution:

R22-09-548

Moved by: Councillor Bondy

Seconded by: Councillor Vander Doelen

That Council direct Administration to request that the Ministry of Transportation of Ontario (MTO) plan for an accessible trail on South Talbot Road when the permanent trail is constructed.

Councillor Bondy requested a recorded vote:
